WHO SHOULD ATTEND? The ISSTD Professional Training Child & Adolescent Course is a must for anyone working with Traumatized Children. The program is designed for clinicians in both private and public sectors. Licensed mental health professionals (psychiatrists, psychologists, clinical social workers, mental health counselors) who are personally treating a child or adolescent with Complex PTSD, a significant trauma history, or dissociative symptoms will benefit from this course; educators in human services who want to promote an understanding of dissociation in their milieu will be considered. Other professionals will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

INSTRUCTORS: Participants have access to our outstanding faculty directly throughout the duration of the course (all experts in the treatment of dissociative disorders in children): Joyanna Silberg, PhD; Frances S. Waters, LMSW, LMFT; Sandra Wieland, PhD; and Annita Jones, PsyD.

REQUIREMENTS: PRIOR TO REGISTERING FOR THIS COURSE: Clinicians in training may attend with the written recommendation of the chairperson of this course. To acquire that recommendation or for questions and to register, please forward your CV, license and a brief paragraph summary of one of your current DD patients directly to, the online course director, Mirel Goldstein, MS, MA, LPC via email: mirelgoldstein@gmail.com.

IMPORTANT NOTE: To benefit the most from this course, participants who attend this course must be treating a child or adolescent with dissociation. Our experience is that unless that is the case, participants do not have enough contextual experience of dissociative processes to be able to really take in the course material in a meaningful way. However, other situations will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

POLICY NOTE: Should someone register without the prior approval of a faculty member, that individual may be refunded to less a $25 administrative fee. When you click to register you are indicating that you have understand the details of this program, and the rules surrounding the processing of registration fees.
